المجلس الإسلامي
Islamic Council

13 November 1990

His Majesty King Hassan II

Your Majesty,

Assalaam Alaikum wa Rahmatullah wa Barakatuhu.

Your initiative calling for an urgent Arab summit to avert war in the Gulf is most welcome and highly appreciated. The proposed summit offers a real opportunity to make a valuable contribution to the cause of peace and the resolution of the issues afflicting the region.

The Islamic Council earnestly hopes that Your Majesty will use your good offices and best efforts for the summit to take, inter alia, the following two stands:

1) Foreign forces came to Saudi Arabia claiming to defend the kingdom against an Iraqi attack. There is no longer any question of this and the foreign forces should not be permitted to launch any attack from Saudi soil.

2) All outstanding issues in the region, above all the Palestine issue, should be linked together and confronted by a high-powered international conference. Thus the Palestinian stand would be greatly strengthened.

May Allah guide you and bless your efforts with success.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Salem Azzam
Secretary General
